

QW <sup>100</sup> A Man about the products of his thoughts: what he thinks, he becomes".

As truly said by Markatma Gandhi: in his "Truly Experiences with Truth" A man is his by product of the Actions & thoughts. A person becomes & holds the personality that he thinks & the thoughts in his mind.

• Thoughts Influence the attitude & personality... How?

- (1) One's thoughts are the first thing that make the persons Actions & Hence Personality.
- (2) Thoughts Impact the Behaviours, Personality, Actions, it is very Important to protect the thoughts into the compass of morality & conscience.
- (3) Thoughts are Influenced by Upbringings, experiences & Beliefs.
- (4) Ethical Behaviours & Ethical Actions are emerged from Ethical thoughts As the Important things to do so.
- (5) An Understanding & Awareness of our thoughts, feeling & emotions can regulate the Actions properly. For ex:- thought of kindness can make person helpful & empathic. Individual's thought of Anger can make most criminal too. Hence All the Actions are the products of thoughts.

These lines tells that people should think freely for the society, have an ethical point of view ~~per se~~. Society's needs to emphasize on Education as it can inculcate the critical ethical thinking which can produce the individual to act ethically thereby impacting the society, nation and at large!
